The pool of papers presented at the Privacy Law Scholars Conferences (PLSC) between 2008 and 2020.	Pdf. (Papers)	In my account in ATLAS.ti and in my Google Drive.	These papers are publicly accessible on the Internet. Therefore, there are no security concerns.	Upon request.
Semi-structured interviews of a purposely drawn representative sample of the American privacy legal scholars who authored those papers	.mp4 (Zoom video recordings) Pdf. (Written Transcripts)	In my Google Drive. In my account in ATLAS.ti and in my Google Drive.	The information that I will collect through the interviews is composed of opinions of scholars on non-sensitive issues about their scholarship and their visions of the desirable futures that could be achieved through the regulation of technoscientific innovation (“techno-legal imaginaries”). Therefore, the disclosure of the information collected through the interviews would have very little or no risk of physical, psychological, social, economic, legal, or educational advancement harm to the subjects.	Upon request.
